

Can I use the Duo Security internationally?

The Duo smartphone app is designed to work internationally. However, you are required to notify the Information Security Office (security@fredonia.edu) prior to using it internationally if you are traveling to areas that are part of the European Union due to privacy laws restrictions. The ISO will temporarily disable your Duo Security account protection while you are in the European Union. Your access to email and other protected services will not be disabled during this time only Duo.
