

How do I create or replace my Outlook profile to work with G Suite?

With G Suite Sync for Microsoft® Outlook® (GSSMO), you normally create a profile for accessing G Suite from Outlook, when you first install the plug-in. (You therefore don't need to create a profile later, as described here). However, if you need to create another profile (say, you have another G Suite account you want to access from Outlook), or if you need to recreate your original profile, click here for more information.
